

...of the Shannon Navigation Survey, to assume the duties of County Surveyor, to Lieutenant was pleased to appoint him, in Walker, Civil Engineer, resigned. Mr. of Crescent-place, is Secretary to Mr. office.

the proprietors of private weirs and fish-Shannon, whose property may be affected improvement of the Board of Commissioners, Dublin before the 24th January.

of the intense frost which has com-the Canal water, and stopped the inter-igation Company, whose boats have not week, our supply of Stamp Paper has not and we are therefore deficient of some this be duly accounted for.

Sligo Mails, that left Dublin on Tuesday ed to stop near Kinnegad, and remained The Day Coaches, on the same road, impediment.

Society of Dublin is in a rapid decline for relieve the poor of Enniskillen, Lord air, £100 was promptly subscribed. son, Bart. M. P. is elected an Alderman of of Drogheda.

Mallow Coach Company establishment is and Surgeons of this City and County are day next, to consider the late and intended ts relating to medical charities in Ireland. ession of Manchester are to meet in Cork, outh, to petition Parliament for a legal ck poor of Ireland, and to adopt measures rests of the Faculty.

Commissioner of Medical Inquiry, very nds in his report, that in a district embrac- of 40,000, professional gentlemen should e and attendance gratuitously, and that in er Hospitals should be attached to Dis- staff of four Physicians, to be paid for ecorder, and Charter Justices, will open arter Sessions at the Tholsel Court, on e new Assistant Barrister of Kerry, opened rter Sessions on Thursday, and commenced registry lists.

ter Sessions for Kerry are in future to be nd Dingle. Roscrea, Tipperary, Carrick- een, are made Quarter Sessions towns for perary.

s Courts will be held at Tullamore and new division of the King's County. Mayo, Ballina, Swinford; and Belmullet, Sessions towns.

Conservative publishes the names of 104 istry, and the Leinster Express advertises 00 names for the King's and Queen's ounds had a drag at New-castle race-course ay, but merely for amusement of the crowds o rider would venture to cross the country Frozen weather.

Esq. has received a very kind letter from ympathising in the wants and suffering of closing Twenty-Five Pounds, to be handed rmed here for their relief. The Earl of o remitted Ten Pounds from Paris for the is is truly creditable to the feelings of of good size, forced by Maurice Curran, am Cox, of Ballynoe, Esq. on December ed by Mrs. Cox to her sister, Mrs. Roche, berries and Asparagus are also grown at dener, Power.

serious loss of shipping in the Liverpool tent of £150,000.

rent for the last fortnight was 7137, Ball, M.P. has transmitted £20 to the , for the relief of the poor of that town. e of the General Convalescent Hospital ledge the following additional subscrip- rick, £10, Earl of Carbery, £5, Bolton -grove, £5, Miss Lyons, Richmond Croker, of Ballineagard, £3, J. & P. William Kerby, £1, Walker J. Mason, Dr. Forster, 10s. Alfred Furlong, £1, Dr. l, Edward Massy, Chester, £10. They been able as yet to complete their collec- e persons whom they have not been so nd at home, when called upon, they now they will not be found wanting—we need blic that though the fund already raised eadise and poverty has been of great use, are not recruited, we must at length

...ence, not requiring a Application (Post- Oliver, Rock Mill Loc

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, in George-street, after a few days indis- position, to the irreparable loss of an amiable young family, and the deep affliction of a fondly-attached husband, Catherine, the beloved wife of Edward Bernard, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland.

On Christmas Day, at his residence at Ballynacourty, in this county, after a few days illness, Henry Coulson Heacock, Esq. Lieutenant on half-pay, late 22d Light Dragoons;—a gentleman who possessed in an eminent degree those estimable qualities, both social and domestic, which endeared him to his family and a numer- ous circle of friends, who must long regret the loss of one who was the object of their most affectionate regard.

On Wednesday, at Hardingrove, in this county, aged 19 years, Gerald, second son of the late Samuel Harding, Esq. He bore a long and tedious illness with Christian fortitude.

At Knockane, county Clare, on Wednesday last, Patrick M'Mahon, Esq. aged 79 years,—up to which advanced period he was entwining still closer round him the affections and respect of his relatives and those other numerous friends, to whom his hospitable and good- hearted career was well known.

On Tuesday, in Clare-street, to the deep affliction of her family, Jane Graves, wife of Bartholomew William Graves, Esq.—a Lady whose demise has been a source of the greatest sorrow to a numerous circle of relatives and friends, to whom she was endeared by the possession of many virtues.

In William-street, on Christmas Day, John Connelly, Esq. feather- merchant, late Quartermaster of the Limerick County Militia.

Suddenly, on Christmas Day, Mr. Richard Goggin, of this city, watchmaker.

On Christmas-eve, at the Lock-quay, rather suddenly, Mrs. Drysdale, widow of the late Mr. John Drysdale, builder.

At Coolnamuck Court, on Wednesday, Mrs. Wall, the Lady of Charles William Wall, Esq. This lamented Lady was after dressing for dinner, when she was suddenly taken ill and expired.

At Glin, Edward Griffin, Esq.

At the North Strand, Mr. William M'Enery, tobacconist.

In Nelson-street, yesterday, Mr. Mullins, clerk in the Canal office.

In Peter-street, Dublin, Mr. Edward Forde, of Cork, printer.

At Summer hill, Dublin, John Knox, Esq. aged 81.

At Kilmorane, county Clare, suddenly, Mr. Michael Considine.

At Dromcolloher, in this county, on Christmas Day, William Langford, Esq. aged 61 years,—a worthy honest gentleman, a kind and most indulgent landlord, and well known for his hospitality.

Christmas Day, of fever, William Wellesley Page, Esq. of Gardiner] street, Dublin, solicitor.

At Boomhall, Londonderry, the seat of her father the Lord Bishop of Derry, Harriet Catherine, the wife of the Rev. Thomas Lindsay, Rector of Tamlaght, and eldest daughter of the learned Prelate.

At the Glebe-house, Phibsborough, Emily Jane, wife of the Rev. Arthur Smith Adamson, daughter of the late Thomas Barry, of Leighsbrook, and the Hon. Maria Juliana Barry, and granddaughter of the late Right Hon. John Lord Carbery.

At Rosenearth, near Cove, Frances Mysey, the wife of the Rev. Benj. Webb Bradshaw, and daughter of the late Melmoth Guy, Esq.

In York-street, Cork, and of Mount-Blakeny, county Limerick, Mr. Thomas White, aged 63 years.

At Mitchelstown, Mrs. Margaret Reidy.

At Kingstown, of fever, Frederick C. Spear, of College-green.

Marrion, fourth daughter of Captain Speedy, Royal Barracks.

At Cullenswood Avenue, Miss Frances Gaynor.

Catherine, daughter of the late Rev. Doctor Hopford, Rector of Glanworth, county Cork.

Mr. James O'Brien, of Tuckey-street, Cork.

At Newtownards, in his 27th year, J. Kennedy, Esq. M.D.

Mr. W. Sutherland, proprietor of the Mail Coach Hotel in Clonmel.

In Clonmel, Mr. William Cooney.

In Cashel, after a tedious illness, Mrs. Connery.

At Waterford, on Christmas Day, Margaret Price, aged 12 years, youngest daughter of the late Rev. William Price.

At Clashmore Glebe, county Waterford, the residence of her son-in-law, the Rev. W. Mackesy, Mrs. Pickland, widow of the late Captain George Pickland, formerly of the 36th regiment.

On Saturday, in Waterford, aged 74 years, Mrs. Eliza Tydd, relict of the late Francis Tydd, Esq. and sister of the late Lieut. General William Doyle.

At Monkstown, Hester, the wife of William Brady, Esq.

At Glebe-Hill, Enniscorthy, in his 78th year, Richard Radcliff, A.M. for 36 years Rector of St. Mary's, Enniscorthy.

In Thurles, Mr. John Bolger.

At Baltiboy's, county Wicklow, the seat of Lieutenant-Colonel H. Smith, of malignant scarlet fever, Anne, youngest daughter of T. G. Gardiner, Esq. of Bindon-house, Somersetshire.

At Shamrockvale Lodge, Lisburn, Mary, wife of Lieut. Clarke, late Royal Artillery.

Caroline Rosina, youngest daughter of William Usher, of Parson- town, Esq. and granddaughter of the late Rev. Edward Price, Archdeacon of Killaloe.

At Greenfort, county Donegal, Humphrey Labington, Esq. late Captain in the 26th Regiment.

At Marle-hill, Boyle, John Irwin, Esq.

Mrs. Collins, of Pall-mall, aged 62 years.

On Christmas-eve, at Cheltenham, Colonel George Jackson, of the North Mayo Militia.

At Leicester Terrace, Woodside, Maria Louisa, wife of Morgan O'Connell, Esq. of Liverpool.

At Shirley, near Southampton, Mary, the beloved wife of Lieut. M. C. Forster, daughter of Sir John and Lady Harriet Hoare, Bart. and niece to the Marquis of Thomond.

John, eldest son of the Rev. J. Russell, D.D. Rector of Bishopsgate.

At Stoke Newington, Mary, relict of Adam Clarke, LL.D. aged 76.

At Plymouth, on his way to Madeira, Joseph Telford, Esq. late Captain 96th regiment, third son of William Telford, Esq. of Green- ville, King's County.

At Cheltenham, Major Richard Prittie Brooke.

At Morton House, Buckingham, Sarah Dorothea, widow of Colonel R. Browne.

At Sleaford, aged 97 years, Mrs. Brand, mother of Lady Hamilton, wife of Colonel Sir William Hamilton, of the 30th regiment.

At Liverpool, after a very short illness, Elizabeth, wife of John Hall, Esq. and sister of Capt. Silver, of Gosport.

At Nice, Mrs. Fordyce, wife of John Thomas Fordyce, Esq. of Aytton, and sister of Major-General Sir John Bullman.

At Jersey, aged 33, Wm. James Cockburn, Esq. late of 75th Regt.

In October last, at Gambia, John Macdonnell, Esq. Captain in the Royal African Corps, formerly of Ennis, county Clare.

At Kurnaul, East Indies, Edward Henry, son of Major Tronson, 13th Light Infantry.

At Paris, the Right Hon. Lady Torphichen.

At Edinburgh, Mary Marjoribanks, Lady Nasmyth, wife of Sir John M. Nasmyth, of Posso, Bart.

A Letter to the People of Ireland.

MY COUNTRYMEN—I, James Minahan, of the City of

To Rob

LA

THE NATIONAL BA

WE, the undersig

tensive neighb

regret, that the Board

Ireland has resolved on

Be the cause what it

much from any individ

this very few of us, fro of enjoying,) as for yo

duct, in the managem

to contend with prejud

foundation, and were e

We bear testimony t

had no favorite, and whose countenance or could have proved of v

of profit to the Shareh were Manager.

In no one instance b

private capacity, since

borne yourself uniform

whose character was ev

lanthopy, as paranou

disentent.

For the exercise of t

believe misrepresentati

followed, and your rem

only can prove the w

where you will, or wh

associations connected

portment, cannot be ea

We are, Sir,

GENTLEMEN,—I fin

pression to the feelings

Entrusted, subject to

tors, with the managem

be permanently benefi

the inhabitants of thi

utmost of my ability, t

fore me.

Your address, which

ing, though in a far to