ENNIS COLLEGE.
REV. DOCTOR KING, EX-SCHOLAR, T.C.D.
MASTER.
TERMS, without extras, THIRTY-SIX GUINEAS per annum.
THE fact that nearly £150 are annually expended on Science and English Literature, whilst Italian and French are taught throughout each day to every pupil in this Establishment, evinces that a mere Classical Education is not pursued; and signal success in the University; Dr. King's acknowledged exertions and anxiety for the religious and moral improvement, health, and comfort of his Pupils; exhibitions for seven years; the unusual number of best qualified Assistants; extensive buildings and play grounds, with the reasonable terms and truly liberal treatment which the Endowment enables him to propose, warrant the assertion that peculiar advantages are insured.
Fewer pupils enter the University than from any other school of equal respectability (the annual average not being three); yet independently of Vice Chancellor's Prizes, Classical Honours, Catechetical Premiums, and Exhibitions, uniformly obtained, FIFTH SIZARSHIP was awarded in the present year.
THE HEBREW AND TWO CLASSICAL SIZARSHIPS in the last THIRD SCHOLARSHIP, in each of the two preceding years, to the only candidate from this School. TWO SIZARSHIPS in 1837, and Hebrew premiums, with one of the first five places at entrance, have invariably distinguished Dr. King's pupils.— Coaches from Dublin to Ennis in sixteen hours, from Cork in eleven, from Tralee in ten.
