

effects arising from them:—And it is with the greatest satisfaction I look forward to the salutary consequences which must result from the present establishment of Sunday and Daily Schools; being convinced that nothing will tend more to improve and cultivate the habits of the rising generation of the lower order of people, than proper attention to their education, which, I have no doubt, the unanimity of every religious persuasion amongst you, for the public weal, your generous contributions and your wholesome regulations will effectually accomplish.”

The Limerick Chronicle.

LIMERICK.

A few days ago, Mr. O'Brien, H. C. lodged in the County gaol, Thomas Tracey, yeoman, of Ballinulta, in the County of Tipperary, being indicted in the Crown office, for an highway robbery on William Ryan; and for wilfully shooting at Thomas Lloyd, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Limerick; he is also charged with the murder of Daniel Horan.

The Minister of St. Munchin's acknowledges the receipt of eight shillings from Lady Hartstonge, thro' the hands of the Rev. Deane Hoare, for the Poor of said Parish.

Yesterday died, Miss Ryan, daughter to Mr. George Ryan, merchant; a young lady whose amiable disposition renders her death a great loss to her parents and friends.

AS when a flower the pride of all the plain,
Nurtur'd with care and watch'd with anxious pain,
Day after day some new-born tincture shews,
And now with full arriv'd beauty glows
Admir'd of all—when instant rushes forth
From the cold chambers of the icy North
The nipping blast—yet still its honors rise,
Its fragrance still perfumes the lucid skies;
But Fate at length creeps latent thro' each vein,
And all its beauties strew the verdant plain:
So dear Eliza in youth's fullest bloom
Sunk Fate's pure victim to her early tomb,
Smiling she sunk into eternal rest,
Flush'd with that hope which ne'er forsakes the blest'd.

DIED. Last Monday at Glin, deservedly regretted by a numerous acquaintance, Mrs. Fitz-Gerald, mother to the Knight of Glin.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

THE Lord Bishop of Limerick has been pleased to fix SUNDAY the 17th January 1790, for CHARITY SERMONS to be preached in the Churches of Limerick to aid the United House of Industry for the County and City of Limerick.

Since the Year 1774 Two Thousand One Hundred and Ninety-five have been received into the House, where there are now 97 Poor, many of whom must have perished by Sickness and extreme Want. The Governors have adopted every saving Plan, and the Poor are maintained for about two-pence-farthing each, per Day. The Balance in Hands will not support the House until next Affizes, and as the Poor are mostly Natives of the County, it is requested such Country Gentlemen as cannot attend the Sermons, will send their Contributions to Mr. FERRAR, in Limerick.—The Governors wish every humane Person would visit the House and see how it is managed. December 31, 1789.

MR. POWER, impressed with the deepest sense of Gratitude for the repeated Favors conferred on him, by the numerous and respectable Families in the Town and Vicinity of RATHKEAL; with profound respect, acquaints them he, by particular Desire, has fixed his Assembly for THURSDAY 7th January next, at the Long-Room Rathkeal, where the Company are requested to meet early, as Minuets will be a

The DUBLIN MORNING HERALD.

AT the particular Desire of some of the first Nobility, and Gentry in this Kingdom, as well as Merchants, Brokers, Traders, Country Gentlemen, the Public in General, and by the Advice of one of the most distinguished Characters of the Age, tho' humble enough to stile himself a COBLER: The Proprietor of the Evening Herald, with great Respect for that Generous Public, to whom he feels himself so much indebted; desires to notify in every reputable Paper in the Kingdom, that in order to acquiesce with the Sense of the NATION, to have a Public Print of General Post Days truly Impartial, conveying every Article of fresh Intelligence, the Debates of Lords and Commons in both Kingdoms, Price of Stocks, Provisions, Grain, &c. with other useful Tables highly beneficial to the Public, will change the Title of said Paper to the Morning Herald, and Publish the same every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Mornings, at seven o'clock. Commencing on Tuesday the 29th of December Inst.

AUCTION.

TO be SOLD by AUCTION at TOOREEN, near Croom, in the County of Limerick, on Thursday the 7th of January next, a large parcel of CORN and HAY, several high bred Brood Mares, Foals and Fillies, some Draft and Saddle Horses, Bridles and Saddles: Tables, Chairs, and other Household Furniture, late the Property of the Rev. JOHN QUIN, deceased.—Six Months Credit on approved Security, for five Pounds or upwards, or one Shilling in the Pound allowed for Cash: The Sale will begin at 11 o'clock, and will be finished in one Day. Dec. 28, 1789.

[3P] JOHN RUSSELL, Auctionier.

IRWIN'S ACADEMY.

IRWIN acknowledges with Gratitude the Favors he has received during twelve Years, from a discerning Publick. He hopes an unremitting Attention to his Pupils Improvement, under proper Teachers, will gain a Continuance of that distinguished and generous Protection, he has so long experienced. The Number of his Scholars shall in future be limited and select, and his Terms for Boarders are not increased, though having the Advantage of a Mathematical, and Classical Education. His Assistants shall always be Men of proper Morals, well versed in Greek and Latin, &c. His Yearly Examination is postponed to the first of April, when Merit alone will be considered and rewarded.

RECESS will end 7th January.
French and Dancing Masters attend.
Limerick, Dec. 28, 1789.

THE SPRINGFIELD HUNT,

MEET at DRUM on Monday the 4th of January next; a FOX and the HOUNDS at the Cross of FUONA, at 12 o'clock, and Dinner at Five.

WILLIAM ODELL, Esq; President.
Dec. 28, 1789

NOTICE.

MR. O'SULLIVAN requests no Gentleman will SHOOT on the Lands of MOUNT O'SULLIVAN, (formerly Mount-Rice,) in the County of Clare, or the Lands of FAHA, in the County of Tipperary, as he has appointed Persons to preserve the GAME on said Lands. Poachers will be prosecuted according to Law. (2P) Limerick, Dec. 28, 1789.

WHEREAS on Wednesday Night the 23d Inst. the Cellar under the Chapel in Creagh-Lane, was burglariously broke open, and thereout stolen a TIERCE of SALMON, the Property of the Salmon-Weir Company, who will pay FIVE GUINEAS Reward for discovering and prosecuting to Conviction the NENAGH HUNT.

THE Nenagh Hunt are to meet on MONDAY the 4th Day of January next. JOHN DROUGHT, Esq; PRESIDENT. Such Members as do not Pay in their Subscription to the Treasurer on or before the tenth of January, cannot be longer considered of the Hunt. M. O'MEARA, Treasurer.
Dec. 21, 1789.

(3P)

WINE, PORTER, SALT, AND VINEGAR,

Just arrived to GEORGE RUSSELL, A FEW Hogheads choice Claret, Vintage 1785. 6 Tierces best VINEGAR. A few elegant SILK UMBRELLAS, which he will Sell at a Commission of five per Cent. Best LONDON PORTER in Hhds & Tierces. St. Ube's SALT of the first Quality. Tierce, Barrel, and Half Barrel HOOPS, Selling at his Stores.

A Vessel is now Loading in London, which will take in any GOODS at FREIGHT for this Port; for Address apply to said RUSSELL.

N. B. The HIGHEST PRICE for ENGLISH BARLEY and BEANS.
Limerick, Dec. 17, 1789.

To the Ladies and Gentlemen of this CITY and NEIGHBOURING COUNTIES.

SINCE my temporary recession from Business, having heard some very heavy Complaints of the execution of Goods in the Glass Line, I am induced, by the most flattering promises of that Support I have always experienced—therefore to request a Continuance of it; as I have now, thank God, the means of forming an elegant Assortment, it shall be my constant Study to fulfil the expectations of my Friends in the newest Taste and most fashionable Manner, and shall thankfully execute whatever Commands you may be pleased to favor me with. If I am so happy to be again honoured with your Confidence, the study of my Life as well as the wish of my Heart, shall be to shew you how highly I esteem the Countenance and Protection of the numerous genteel Families who have, at all times, given a distinguished Preference to my House.—I am, Ladies and Gentlemen, your very humble Servant, JOHN GLASSER.

Lands and Houses.

TO be LET from the 25th of March next, during the Minority of EYRE EVANS, aged 15 Years, the following Lands, part of said Minor's Estate, situate about two Miles from Charleville.

The House and Demesne of Milltown, as now held by Mr. Adams, containing	132	2	33
Cloghonora, as held by the representatives of the late Henry Sanders, Esq.	88	0	16
That part of Ardglash, now held by J. Enright.	49	2	26

Proposals in Writing to be made to Mr. EYRE EVANS, Island, Limerick, or to the Rev. Mr. BRUCE, Farthing-Ville, Charleville.
(8P) Dec. 24, 1789.

COURT BRACK.

THE House, Offices and Field, now held by William Odell, Esq; will be Set from the 25th MARCH next, for such Term as may be agreed on. Proposals to be made to Sir VERE HUNT, Bart. Limerick.
[4P] Dec. 24, 1789.

TO BE LET,

From the 25th of MARCH next, For 2 Lives renewable for ever, or 31 Years,