

1, and I think it may be added such is an isolated case among the mistresses attending the model schools. Let us see, that the dog-in-the-manger practice we thus with your permission, as I hope attention will soon be given up and be re-he wise and beneficent acts which are characteristic of the clergy of the the nineteenth century.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
FAIR PLAY.

ber, 1877.

EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
25, Patrick-street, Limerick.
I have published the following which I had from Col. Sir William Hamilton, leaving for India.

Yours respectfully,
C. HANNA.

HANNA.—I must say I have been pleased with how I have been served and establishment, with general family growth. October, 1875, and have not any objection you give my name as a reference when it is useful to do so.

Yours &c., &c.
W. HAMILTON, LIEUT.-COL.,
5th Brigade, Royal Artillery.

AL BIJOU GRAND PIANOFORTE.

EIGHTY FIVE GUINEAS,

LONDON, 1877

AND COLLARD,

Believing that there is at the present time a considerable demand for a grand pianoforte of small size, we have introduced a new instrument, of length only 5ft. 10 inches, having the compass of 7 octaves, and possessing all the tone and touch so generally acknowledged in the more expensive instruments of this class. It has been bestowed on this as on other pianos, and no pains spared to procure the best material and workmanship which competent judges may recommend.

The price of meeting with an extensive sale, has been fixed at the lowest point, commensurate with the use of the best material and workmanship. Price 85 guineas. This instrument has been for the first time imported into the country by Corbett and Son, 108, Strand, and may be now seen at their warehouse.
