selected were—"Abide with Me," "Peace, perfect peace," and "For all Thy Saints." The remains were laid to rest in a newly-made grave, near the family mausoleum. It was lined with moss, primroses, violets, and evergreens. Wreaths were sent, amongst others, by the members of the deceased nobleman's family, and also by the Dowager Lady Inchiquin, Lieut-Colonel O'Callaghan Westropp and Officers of the Clare Artillery, of which Lord Inchiquin was Hon.
Colonel, Lord and Lady Iveagh, Mr and Mrs Wilson Fitzgerald, Lady Fitzgerald, Hon. Mrs

Mrs Eam, sister of the deceased; the house servants and employees at Dromoland. Other wreaths arrived too late to enable us to supply a complete list.

The funeral arrangements were most satisfactorily carried out by Messrs. Todd and Company, under the superintendence of Mr. Joynt.

At the Ennis Board of Guardians yesterday, the following resolution was passed, on the motion of Mr O'Meehan, seconded by Mr Cahill:—"Resolved—That this Board tenders its sincere sympathy to Lady Inchiquin and family on the death of Lord Inchiquin, who for many years filled the position of Chairman.
His keen business-like manner, and the ability he displayed in watching the interests of the ratepayers, always called forth the highest praise, while he always took the keenest interest in the welfare of the poor."

THE ROYAL VISIT.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather yesterday, the Queen abandoned her customary tour of the Viceregal grounds in her donkey chaise, but in the afternoon went for a carriage drive with Princess Victoria of Battenberg and Lady Antrim, and, calling at Farmleigh, left a card with the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.
During the drive rain came on very heavily, and the carriage had to be closed. Her Majesty's guests at dinner last evening were the Earl and Countess of Carysford, Lord and Lady Clonbrock, and Mr Smith-Barry, M.P., and Mrs Smith-Barry.

HER MAJESTY ABANDONS HER VISIT TO THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDENS.

(BY TELEGRAPH).
Dublin, Thursday evening.
The weather in Dublin is much more favourable to-day, and the Queen is paying a visit to the Zoological Gardens.

At the last moment her Majesty, for the present, abandoned her intention of going to the Zoological Gardens, the better to enable her to review 1,000 children brought by special train from the Queen's County, and who arrived last Saturday too late.

ANOTHER ROYAL VISIT.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES TO VISIT IRELAND.

A London correspondent writes:—"The information, based upon excellent authority, reaches me to the effect that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales have determined to visit Ireland this year. My informant further states that their Royal Highnesses propose to be present, with other members of the Royal Family at Leopardstown Races in the autumn, and it is not improbable that subsequently they will visit various parts of the South and West of Ireland.

Mary's Cathedral, under Mr Muspratt, organist.
The officiating clergymen were Rev Canon L O'Brien, and Rev R J Conolly.

The arrangements were carried out under the supervision of Mr Jeremiah O'Connor, Foynes.
At the quarterly meeting of the Rathkeale District Council, held on Tuesday, the following vote of condolence was unanimously passed:— "That the Rathkeale District Council, at its quarterly meeting assembled, sincerely and with the most profound regret, sympathise and condole with Lord and Lady Monteagle at the early death of their much lamented son and heir, the Hon Stephen E Spring Rice; and we pray that God may strengthen them in their sad affliction."

EASTER HOLIDAYS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
DEAR SIR.—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to remind the pawbrokers as to giving the employees Easter Monday next, the 16th inst, as a holiday. I also wish to remind them that through some mistake or other the assistants were deprived of the same day last year. Hoping that it will be well understood that the holiday is general and well earned.—I remain, sir, yours truly, AN ASSISTANT.

RAILWAY EXCURSIONS.

The Waterford, Limerick and Western Railway Company announce various cheap excursions for the Easter holidays, among the most popular being special day trip excursion to Killaloe, from which the Shannon Development Company have arranged for a cruise on Lough Derg, both on Easter Sunday, leaving Limerick 4 p.m., and Easter Monday, leaving Limerick 3.15 p.m. These trips are sure to be largely patronised by the citizens. Refreshments will be supplied on board the steamers.

AUCTION OF SECOND-HAND BICYCLES.—A number of excellent machines, ladies and gentincluding "Shannon," "Singer," "Swifts," "Humbers," "Rudges," "Treaty's," &c, are entered for sale at the Cycling School, Henry street, at three o'clock on Saturday next.

SMOKE O'DONOVAN'S STRAIGHT-CUT CIGARETTES. 17, George-street, Limerick.

Gleeson also explained what occurred. He was on duty at the fire station, and went off duty at seven o'clock. The morning being wet they waited till a quarter to eight. He bore out what was stated in his report as regards Meany and Hayes.

Inspector McNamara, in reply to the Mayor, stated he called over the roll that night and in the morning. On each occasion Hayes and Meany answered all right. They left the Watch-house together at ten minutes past six, and were then all right.

The Mayor did not know that they had a right to sit in judgment on the men when they were off duty.

Mr Moran—They must clearly understand that if they commit assaults they bring discredit on the whole system.

Alderman Joyce said these men should be censured very severely for making such an exhibition of themselves and the position they held, at any hour of the day, whether on duty or off duty, and getting the night patrol and the Fire Brigade spoken of very badly about this city. He allowed that they did their duty properly and effectively, but they had no right to make an exhibition of themselves.

One of the Watchmen—It won't occur again.

Mayor—We were loyal to these men, and God knows they ought to be loyal to us now. They could not be jeered at by the public for allowing insubordination, and the sooner they put their foot down the better.

Mr Moran seconded Alderman Joyce's proposition that these two men be censured.

Mr Dalton—What would happen if there was a fire in the city at nine o'clock that morning.

Mayor—They were not supposed to be on fire duty.

Mr Barry proposed that the two men be suspended for a month.

Mr Dalton seconded, and on a pill there voted for—

Alderman Joyce's resolution—Messrs O'Brien (2), Slattery, Aldermen Joyce, and Gilligan Messrs Connery, Whelan, and Moran—8.

For the amendment—Messrs Dalton, Vaughan, and Barry—3.

FURTHER COMPLAINTS.

The following report was read?

"Sir—I beg to report Inspector McNamara went out with me at 11 o'clock p.m.; after leaving men on their beats Inspector called to Fire Station; after that visit Inspector went to George street; it was 12 15 a.m.; heard some parties singing in Upper George street; went up with one man and they went off; I whistled for men on that beat, Leo and Bourke; I could not find them; at 1 o'clock a.m. Leo and Bourke came up Peacock's Hill, off Barrington street; I asked them did they hear me call, and Leo said they did about 20 minutes ago; I asked them what took them off their beats, and Leo said that they were near Tail's clock when they heard the whistle go off, and they thought it was in Edward street, and they then came around Colooney street, and in through Vize's Fields; I told them to stop on George street and the Crescent that that was their beat; Inspector visited same at 2 30 a.m.; I had to whistle, and Leo and Bourke came down from Upper Mallow street; I was asking them about the mail train, and if there many parties passed up George street, when Bourke told me that Leo was assaulted by a man of the name of Considine from Carey's road; I asked how it occurred, and Bourke told me it was Leo's own fault—if he let the man pass that nothing would happen; Leo charged Bourke with looking on and not assisting him. Leo and Bourke abused each other, and were disorderly on George street. Inspector had to move them on to a side street, and still could not get a proper report from them. I told Leo and Bourke they should each make out a report for me—where and how the assault took place. They were contradicting each other, and called each other liars. I told them that I would report their conduct to the Corporation for next meeting.

"JOHN McNAMARA, Inspector."

An explanation was read from Bourke to the effect that while on duty with Leo on Saturday night they met two men with whom Leo got into argument.

Leo stated that he escorted an intoxicated man home, and that explained his absence from his beat, &c.

Having heard explanations, The Mayor said there ought to be no shilly-shallying about this matter. If they were going to forsake discipline and countenance this conduct he would prefer it would be dropped, and let the police have the streets night and day.

Mr O'Brien (Irishtown)—There is a considerable distinction, as there is no charge against Bourke, except for being off his beat.

Mr Slattery—One is as culpable as the other.
Mr Whelan—Leo said Bourke wanted to go for a drink, and both the men deny it.

The Mayor—Were they under the influence of drink?

Inspector McNamara—Both men were sober, or if they were not I would bring them to the watchhouse.

Mr Moran said that in the interests of discipline he thought Leo ought to be dismissed and Bourke suspended until the man they brought home was seen.
