OUT AND ABOUT.

100 YEARS AGO.—A continuation of this series of articles will be given on Thursday.

IRISH CREAMERY QUESTION.—An important contribution on this question will be given on Thursday.

KILRUSH URBAN COUNCIL.—There was a breeze at the meeting last night, and some lively passages of arms. We shall give a report on Thursday.

GLIN FAIR.—At this fair yesterday buyers and supplies were plentiful, and prices ruled much in advance of recent fairs in Limerick and Kerry.

1,200 CASES AND 70 DEATHS.—On Saturday there were some 1,200 known cases and nearly seventy deaths from the beer poisoning epidemic.

CAP LOST.—Mr. M. Ryan, International, lost his football cap in Town on Saturday, and the finder is requested to hand it to Mr. J. O'Sullivan, Garryowen, F.C.

A GENEROUS GIFT.—Mr. Archibald Murray has written to the Mayor, generously doubling his firm's subscription to the fuel fund, making the sum the liberal one of £10.

CASTLECONNELL PETTY SESSIONS.—Mr. W. G. Gubbins and Colonel Westropp presided at these monthly sessions held yesterday. There were only five civil cases to be dealt with, and these were of the ordinary character.

PURE BEER.—As will be seen by an advertisement in another page the O'Connell Ale brewed at Dublin is guaranteed to be the pure product of malt and hops only. Those who partake of it, therefore, need have no fear of arsenical poisoning.

CASES DISMISSED.—At Kilrush Petty Sessions yesterday, Patrick Carey, Henry-street, and Francis McNamara, Francis-street, were charged with illegal selling of drink. In each case the police failed to prove the offence, and both were dismissed.

ACCIDENTS.—An old man named Michael O'Connor residing in Carr-street, has been admitted to Barrington's Hospital suffering from a broken leg. A child named Mary Nunan was treated for a burn on her face.

CLONROD FAIR.—At this fair yesterday there were ample supplies, but few buyers. Prices were down from 15s to 25s a head in horned stock. Four year old heifers fetched from £8 to £10; two year olds, £10 to £12; 3 year olds, £12 to £15; prime springers, £20; second class £13 to £16; beef prime 52s 6d, and secondary 46 a cwt.

PARENTS AND THEIR CHILDREN.—At the Ennis County Infirmary Meeting, yesterday, Mr. Atkins referred to a case in which a parent travelled 14 miles to see his son and was not allowed to do so. Mr. Harris, J.P., also strongly protested against such wounding of parents.

Mr. Daniel McNeice, junr. was elected to preside. The Chairman stated that they had met for the purpose of electing a Medical officer, and requested their Secretary to read the correspondence which had passed between him and the several medical gentlemen.

Mr. Cuddihy said it gave him great pleasure to propose Dr. Charles McDonnell, who was a young man who passed through a remarkably brilliant collegiate course. His success had brought credit not alone on himself, but on his native city, and his diplomas showed that Limerick men in anything they went for were able to hold their own. He was a son of their esteemed fellow-citizen, Alderman Patrick McDonnell—a gentleman who was ever a friend to the working-man.

Mr. John Mahony, sen., seconded the proposition.

There being no other candidate proposed, the Chairman stated that he endorsed everything that was said in praise of Dr. McDonnell, and it gave him the greatest possible pleasure in declaring him unanimously elected medical officer to the employees of the port and harbour. He hoped that it would be the commencement of a long and successful career (applause).

The election of Committee of Management then followed, with the following result:—President, Patrick M. McInerney; Hon. Secretary, Thomas Hanrahan; Treasurer, Daniel McNeice, junr. Committee—Messrs. J. Leahy, M. Sheehy, Captain James Reynolds, James Halpin, P. Kearns, and Michael Cuddihy, D.C.
