SESSION V. L.C. H.C.

A match took place yesterday and was of interest. There was a victory, which included many runs. The match resulted in a win for the L.C.H.C., but notwithstanding this, as by no means one-sided. It ended before two of the Legal appearances, and afterwards the L.C.H.C. serving of mention are the names, Captain Harrington, J. Henrick, and for the Lawyers: and R. Nash.

The teams:—
 L.C.H.C.—G. T. Gelston, T. Roche-Kelly, W. Twiss, O. Stokes, E. G. Stokes, Capt. O'G. Lawlor, J. S. Matthias Smyth, R. Wallace, J. Nash, J. Myles, O'Connor, Leahy.

SECOND V. CORK SECOND.

A match between the above took place at the Farranshone Grounds and was a rather one-sided game. The Farranshone were returned the winners by some fine play which was witnessed by several players on the losing side, addressing a meeting of the L.C.H.C. at Corktown on Saturday, said that the programme was now of the most inducement for all who would accept reasonable terms, and he would not accept them. He stated that he offered the purchase of the second term

REMEDY AND PILLS.

Temperature sorely try persons with sciatica, tic doloureux, and other less painful, though of the first attack of stiffness or joint or nerve, recourse should be had to fomenting the seat of disease with this remarkable Ointment. It removes the uneasiness of the part, and reduces the swelling. The Ointment will rectify constitutional weakness, and restore the strength. No remedy has proved so effective as this in removing gouty, rheumatic affections which afflict all ages, and are incurable.

WANTED A WATER SUPPLY.

An application was read from a farmer named Haren, Kilmaley, for a water supply at the waterworks.

This is the same man who had been fined 40s and costs at Ennis town court on Friday for polluting the water service.

Mr. O'Connor strongly opposed the application, or he could not guarantee a supply to the town. The Chairman said they could not entertain the application.

AT LAST.

Mr. O'Mahony once more renewed his application to be granted a lease of the waste ground at the approach to the Railway Station. There existed a strong doubt as to the Council's power to grant a lease, but eventually they decided to grant one for 99 years at £2 a year. The other business was routine.
