ing the sewage tank was also considered excessive.

The death has just occurred of Mr. Michael cGrath, postmaster, Quin, formerly a member of the police force, which sad event took place for a brief illness. His funeral was large and presentative, amply testifying to the great popularity in which the deceased was held by all who knew him.

Mr. Sinclair W. Payne, Arbitrator appointed by the Local Government Board, held an inquiry at the Courthouse, Glin, yesterday, in connection with the scheme of cottages promoted by the Glin Local District Council. Mr. Maurice J. O'Shaughnessy, Clerk; Mr. John Moran, solicitor, Listowel; and Mr. David Ruddle, Chairman, were in attendance.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Inspector Thomas A. Gray, of the Leeward Islands Police, to be a Justice of the peace for the Presidency of Dominica. Inspector Gray, is an ex-member of the R.I.C., and was stationed as a mounted sergeant in Dominica before his appointment to the Leeward Islands. He was closely identified with the starting of the Clare Constabulary sports.

Amongst the Maynooth students who received Minor Orders at the hands of the Most Rev. Dr.
Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, Very Rev. Dr.
Dea, Vice-President of the College, acting as arch-deacon, were the following students from Killaloe—Thomas Hogan, J. Roche and Edward Vaughan. The order of Sub-Deacon was conferred on Daniel Flynn, Killaloe.

Mr. Edward Acton Gibbon, Local Government Board Arbitrator, has held an inquiry at the Workhouse, into the claims of the owners and occupiers of land acquired under the 7th scheme of Limerick No. 2 (Clare District Council), for the erection of labourers' dwellings. Evidence was taken, and Mr. John Ryan, solicitor, attended on behalf of the Limerick Guardians.

The local Constabulary for some days past have been engaged in their annual drill. Last week they were out on the King's Island practising various evolutions, and on Monday and Tuesday they were at Woodcock Hill for rifle practice. The absence of the Constabulary would appear to have been taken advantage of, for it is stated that on Tuesday a house was entered by a thief, and a cover and some plate was carried off the table, which had been laid for dinner.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

On Tuesday in the Probate Court, before Mr Justice Andrews, in the matter of the goods of Honor Craig.

Mr W. E. Kenny (instructed by Mr Kiernan) applied for the release from gaol of John Carrig, who had been committed to Limerick Gaol for contempt of Court in disobeying an order of the Court to lodge the will of Honor Craig. The will had not been lodged in Court, and the prisoner had paid the cost of the present application.
Counsel said he had a consent from Mr Thomas Vaughan, the solicitor, that Carrig should be released.

Mr Justice Andrews granted the application.

DROWNING FATALITY.

Another drowning fatality occurred in the city last night, the victim being a man named John Ong, aged 40 years, who had been employed as polisher at Mr. Lynch's cabinet-making premises, George's Quay. Deceased was last seen about one o'clock, and it is presumed he accidentally fell into the river near Baal's Bridge, where the body was found this morning. An inquest was held this afternoon by Mr. Coroner DeCourcy, and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

CLARE HOTEL LICENSE.

In the King's Bench Division on Tuesday, before Mr. Justice Wright, in the case of Patrick Deahy v. the Chairman and Justices of the County of Clare.

Mr. Corrigan, on behalf of the plaintiff, applied for an order for certiorari and mandamus directed to the Justices. Counsel moved on the affidavit of the plaintiff, in which he said on 2nd November, 1901, he purchased in the Master of the Rolls the premises known as Glengall Hotel for the sum of £1,300, and paid the full purchase money into court. Owing to the difficulty in obtaining a license for the premises until the Sessions in 1902, he was unable to make application for a license for the premises until the Sessions in 1902. It was then shown the premises had been used for the past 100 years until a few years ago when the holder, Michael Keating, allowed it to go. The magistrates were evenly divided, two voting on each side, and the County Court made an order to the effect:—"This not being the annual Licensing Sessions, and the magistrates not having seen fit to hear application, do hereby decline to make the order pending the lodgment of the order of the County Court below."

Mr. Justice Wright declined to make the order pending the lodgment of the order of the County Court below.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

A "London Gazette" Extraordinary was issued on Tuesday evening containing the following announcement:—"Earl Marshal's Office, Norfolk House, St. James's Square, June 24, 1902. I have to announce that the solemnity of the Coronation of their Majesties King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra is postponed from the 26th inst. to a date hereafter to be determined.—(Signed), NORFOLK, Earl Marshal."

THIS DAY'S TELEGRAMS

Owing to special arrangements we were unable to reproduce a copy of the latest bulletin relative to the health of the King at a quarter past two this afternoon, although the telegraph office was not open to the public until five o'clock, p.m. The Post Master here, in view of the exceptional importance of the matter, and recognising that the public anxiously awaited the latest information, kindly allowed the telegraph staff to resume duty at two o'clock. We desire, therefore, to express our indebtedness to the Post Master for his kindness, and to the telegraphic staff for the readiness with which they fell in with this arrangement, as a concession to the public.

London, Thursday, 8.38 a.m.

"Official amended Bulletin states that His Majesty slept some hours during the day and complains very little of discomfort, and is more cheerful. Wound is doing well."

THE LAST TELEGRAM RECEIVED.

London, Thursday, 2.15

An Official bulletin issued to-day says the King had a better night and has improved in all respects. His constitutional conditions are quite favourable, the state of the wound is also satisfactory.

Simla, Thursday.

Intercessional Services are being held throughout India to-day.

The Viceroy and high officials attended Service here. A special prayer was offered by the Bishop of Lahore.

Melbourne, Thursday.

The Coronation ceremonies throughout Australia and Tasmania have been cancelled.

Capetown, Thursday.

The news of the King's illness has caused profound regret in South Africa.

Cardinal Vaughan has addressed the following letter to his clergy:—

"DEAR REV. FATHER—The finger of God has appeared in the midst of national rejoicings, and on the eve of what promised to be one of the most splendid pageants in English history. This is in order to call the thoughts of all men to Himself. The King's life is in danger. Danger being imminent, let us have recourse to the Divine mercy by public prayer for his Majesty's recovery.
For this purpose let the Rosary be recited publicly in every church in the diocese immediately on receipt of this circular. I have learned from the Papal Envoy how earnestly the Holy Father desires the preservation of the King's life, and how cordially he would wish the prayers of the faithful to be offered for their Sovereign's recovery.— Wishing you every blessing, I am, etc.,
"HERBERT CARDINAL VAUGHAN."

THE EMPIRE'S PRAYER.

Lord God Omnipotent, by Whom king's reign,
And with Whom are the issues of all life,
To Thee the suppliant never sues in vain.— Thou grantedst blessed peace from lengthened strife;

Before Thy footstool now In earnest faith we bow And crave that in Thy mercy Thou wilt bring Health's restoration to our suffering King.

That Thou wilt set upon his head the crown Of righteous sway—that in Thy might his land May cast the tyranny of Falsehood down, And give to heavenly Truth a wide command—That to the wronged and weak,

Who right and strength'ning seek,
And to the wail of want and pain He may through Thee win joy again.

Thy minister for good is he; and Thou Hast given him in Thy grace a help most meet.
There never was at altar solemn vow—Of troth kept truer in affection sweet—

With Faith's reliant plea Leal hearts are raised to Thee That Thou in Thy loving Fatherhood wilt spare And bless our Monarch in his Empire's prayer.

WHAT IS PERITYPHILITIS?

A medical correspondent says—The complaint from which the King is suffering, perityphilitis, is inflammation of the peritoneum, covering the caecum and appendix. The caecum is the blind pouch or cul de sac, which is the beginning of the colon, into which the ilium enters, and to which the vermiform appendix is attached. In ordinary language it is inflammation of the outer intestine or the channel which, when it collapses, gives rise to inflammation of the stomach. Perityphi-litis is an inflammation of the connective tissue behind and around the large intestine. This is a most serious form of disease, and always attended by great danger to life, but if taken early is sometimes amenable to treatment. When an internal abscess has formed, caused by perforation of either the bowel or the vermiform appendix, and thus letting material from the bowel into the abdominal cavity, producing peritonitis as a sequence, the gravity of the disease is much increased, and an operation of a very long and serious character becomes absolutely necessary.
This is the condition of his Majesty at the present time. The operation has been performed, but recovery is necessarily slow, and in any case some considerable time must elapse before his Majesty will be able to get about. His Majesty has the greatest and best surgical skill at his command."

The details of the operation are necessarily strictly private, but the Press Association learns that the trouble took the form of an intestinal abscess, the growth of which clogged the natural channel, and would have involved certain death if not speedily removed.

Ninety-six hours is given as the time the crisis is reached, so that by Saturday evening we should be assured that the King is out of danger if the favourable symptoms continue.

THE IRISH PARTY MEETING IN DUBLIN.

The Press Association learns that, as the House of Commons is not going to adjourn, the meeting of the Irish Party, intended to be held next Monday in Dublin, will not take place.

THE CLARE MURDER CASE.

VENUE CHANGED.

In the King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Wright.

Mr. Murphy (instructed by Mr. John Cullinan, Crown Solicitor of Co. Clare), moved, in the case of the King v. Michael Slattery, alias Ryan, to change the venue of the trial of the action from the County of Clare to Cork. Counsel moved on an affidavit made by Mr. Cullinan, in which he stated that Michael Slattery was at present in prison awaiting trial on a charge of having, on the night of the 8th or morning of the 9th May, 1902, at Ross, County Clare feloniously and wilfully killed and murdered Denis Cosgrave. The affidavit further stated that the County of Clare was a proclaimed district under the Crimes Act, and an impartial trial could not be had there.
Mr. Justice Wright granted the application.
