

en over so large a proportion of t would have been slow and alisation." The story of the is a very unpleasant one for shareholders, and who consedered severely; but it is to be new Bank, which is in reality yet prove so successful that mitigated to some extent. The
was in a sound position finan-suspended payment, and the preed on its ruins, deservedly enjoys of the country, and with its shareholders or the original Bank, have become shareholders of the
ake of its prosperity.

by our advertising columns, the
of the School of Art opens on the
uary under most favourable to late movement to improve the ation of the citizens has already t, which we trust will be followed Committee offer prizes for a amongst the students for the work e the 1st December. The Mayor Sheriff have each kindly come offer prizes for competition rtizan students. There are other rticulars concerning which can be e School of Art. The Session of ens auspiciously, and we hope a s been taken to develop the latent t which Limerick undoubtedly d for proof of which the Exhibition ime ago gives ample evidence.

and that a concert will be given by 3, in the Havergal Hall on Monday, uary, under the presidency of Sir t Provincial grand master. The oe in aid of of the masonic schools.

-We are requested to state that ntly arranged between Lansdowne erick County Football Club will the County grounds on Saturday
y game is anticipated.

CATTLE SALE.—Mr F W M'Carthy rtant sale of dairy cattle at Holy to-day, for Mr Michael Meehan.
arge attendance of buyers, and very
ng. Top price realized was £19 19s. lf the cows averaged £18 18s, and averaged £17 10s, all being sold ur.

COURT.—There were two cases for e City Police Court this morning

FUNERAL OF THE LATE DR. EDWARD GLOSTER.

The remains of this deeply regretted young gentleman were interred yesterday morning in the family vault at St Munchin's. Shortly after nine o'clock the funeral left Parteen House; it was very large and representative, comprising, as it did, all classes and creeds in the community, while several residents of the city and district sent carriages. Amongst those present or sent carriages were.—Captain Gloster, cousin of the deceased, Dr M'Mahon, and Mr F M'Mahon, chief mourners (Mr George Gloster, brother, being unable to be present, owing to an accident recently received); Rev J Dowd, Rev J B Radcliffe, Rev J W Clarke, Rev Father Gleason, P P, Parteen; Rev J Quinlivan, C C, St Munchin's; Drs B O'Connor, Graham, Ryan (Castleconnell), Ievers; (Castle Lake), Mr R Hunt, J P, George-street; Captain Hunt, Mr R de Ros, Esq, J P; Mr W S Cox, C E; Mr Wm Spillane, J P; Mr Morton, Manager Provincial Bank; Mr M E Conway, Postmaster; Mr Welpy, Mr J A Place, Mr W Russell, Lemonfield; Mr Green, Greenmount; Mr Gubbins, Kilpeacon; Messrs John and Robert M'Donnell, Fairy Hill; Mr Wm J Hall, B E; Mr W M'Donnell, Mr W J O'Donnell (High Sheriff), Mr Julian, solr; Mr F Cantillon, Mr J G Kelly, J P, Clonmacken; Mr B-gley, Corbally; Mr A Wallace, Town Clerk; Mr C Russell, Mr W Cantillon, Mr R J Kane, Mr T A Furnell, Mr B Furnell, Mr C Heaton-Armstrong, junr; Mr F Fosber, Mr A Baker, Mr P Baker, Mr J B Blennerhassett, Mr D Blennerhassett, Mr R Nash, solr; Mr J Spillane, Mr T D O'Brien, Mr W B Fitt, Mr James Frost, J P; Mr Benjamin Browning, Mr D Browning, Mr E H O'Callaghan, Messrs Willington, Mr P Johnstone, V S; Mr S F Dowling, J P; Mr F G Kennedy, Col O'Donnell, J P; Mr O D Coll, V S; Mr J McNamara, Mr C Gubbins, Mr W Roger, Mr J P Hall, solr. The service was read by the Rev J Dowd, assisted by Rev Mr Radcliffe, after which the coffin, a massive oak one richly mounted and literally covered with wreaths, was borne by a number of the deceased's friends to its final resting place. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs P M'Carthy and Son.

FUNERAL OF MISS CLERY.

The funeral of the late Miss Josephine Clery, daughter of Mr Michael J Clery, J P, Chairman of Cannock and Company, took place yesterday. The remains arrived in Limerick by the mail train from Dublin, and were received at the Terminus by a large concourse of the citizens. The chief mourners were as follow:—Mr M J Clery, JP, father of the deceased; Mr F W Clery, and Masters Robert, Patrick and Michael Clery, brothers of the deceased; Messrs J F Lombard, JP, Dublin; W A Cray, Dublin; F D Tidmarsh, W J Clery, P D Clery, M P Clery, M W Clery, J W Clery, W M Clery, J P Clery; P W Clery, J J Clery, Dr O Clery, Dr M Clery, D O'Keefe, Dr Tidmarsh, Wm Noonan, Thomas Mulcahy, and John Mulcahy. Clergy—Very Rev W Moloney, PP, V G; Very Rev Father O'Keefe, SJ; Rev D Shanahan, and Rev J O'Shea. Amongst the general public present were—Mr W Spillane, JP; Dr Kane, JP; Dr Malon; Dr O'Shaughnessy JP; Messrs Bruce Murray, W Hunt, J Haran, Manager National Bank; J Morton, Manager Provincial Bank; J V Golden, Manager Munster

THE CASTLECONNELL PROSECUTION (FROM OUR REPORTER.)

[Continued from Fourth Page]

Cross-examined by Mr Sheehy.—W side when you were taking these notes.

You took a verbatim report of what I would not swear that it was verbatim. Were there serious omissions? No. But verbal ones? There might be. I don't know whether there was material in them.

You can't say whether there were any words omitted? I believe there was material omitted.

How can you swear that when you not a verbatim report? The portions omitted, of course I mentioned them in my notes. I wound up before you closed your speech.

And how much of the wind up did I can't say owing to the disturbance horse.

There was no other reason? No. Was the horse prancing at any time? He was, he was disturbing at other times.

Did the disturbance by the horse prevent you from following what I said at any time? Besides the close of the speech there other occasions.

How long are you a note-taker? answer that question.

How long did you take to learn shorthand? Did you learn it in a month? Indeed I am practising in the school of the month of May; before that I had a ledge of the system from 1884, and a certificate in 1885 from Mr Pitman.

Was Castleconnell your maiden effort had been at two meetings before that?

Where? Down in the parish of the release of Father Kennedy; I had Newmarket and Meelin.

In connection with the same event—of Father Kennedy? Yes.

The witness was then cross-examined in shorthand characters for "Sam" as referred to in his evidence. The effect of each word was, the witness said, quite clear. Neither was the character for Lewis the same. Witness might have been in the pronunciation of the word "Sam".

Mr Sheehy—Do you swear I used "Sam"? I understood you to say "Sam".

You will also swear that I said "Sam" were patting the emergency face? Yes, that was what I understood.

Is it the same phonographic sign for "are and ought"? No.

How long did these interruptions vary from a minute to two.

Look at the sentence, "You will consider for his fine little points; to make up that you will try if you for ever his foul act, if he will give up. You swear I made use of that language."

Mr Sheehy—Speak it out if you don't be swallowing it.

Witness—I am not swallowing it; Mr Sheehy—You were perfectly comfortable while taking this note?

You had no difficulty in reading afterwards?

Witness—Well not much. The difficulty in reading notes—there is more than in the case of longhand.

I could not say how long you were