CORK AND LIMERICK COMPANY (LIMITED)

At the second annual meeting of the above Company on Tuesday, the following report and balance sheet of accounts was adopted:—The directors submit herewith a statement of the Company's accounts up to the 31st December 1889. The profits as per profit and loss account amount to £2,910 8s 8d. Out of this the directors have paid a dividend at the rate of 7 per centum (free of Income tax), for half-year ending July, 1888 (£875), and recommended a dividend for half-year to 31st January, 1889, absorbing in the two dividends the sum of £1,750, and leaving a surplus of £1,160 8s 8d, which the directors propose to divide as follows, viz:—to be written off against the account, £559 9s 6d; off preliminary account (20 per cent), £243 5s 8d; to add to the balance the sum of £500, to make up to a balance of £57 18s 6d, to be carried forward to next year's account. Mr B. Guy retired from the Board by ballot and was re-elected. Mr John Shanks, of the Company was also re-elected.

ELY RESCUE OF A CHILD.

FROM THE RED CAR GAZETTE. The following interesting facts regarding the rescue of a child have just been brought to the notice of the public by the father of the child, Mr W. H. Haw, the well-known baker of 23 High Street, Redcar. We may be assured that the publishers of this paper, being in possession of the facts, are in a position to vouch for the entire accuracy of the given information. As the incident is no doubt of great importance to parents, we gladly beg pardon of bringing it to the notice of the public. Some little time ago the young son of Mr Haw became the victim of an affliction of a rheumatic nature, which affected the arms and legs of the child, so that he became alarmingly swollen and painful, notwithstanding the steps which were
