NEWMARKET.

Much interest was taken by sporting men at headquarters in a couple of pedestrian matches decided before the racing this morning. In one Mr. Mike Haberlin wagered that James Carney, the famous pugilist, would not run the old Cambridgeshire course without stopping, but he accomplished the feat easily enough. Mr. F. Wear, the Admiral, and Mr. J. Bayliss ran fifty yards for a pony aside, but unfortunately Mr. Wear broke down when leading.
