Population

Finally, he said, it was evident that there were many characteristics which presented a striking identity which assured well for the new partnership.

Welcome

After formally welcoming the delegation from Quimper, Mayor Casey said it gave him great pleasure to sign the charter of civic cooperation, peace and goodwill in the presence of the Lord Mayor of Cork and the Mayor of Derry, two cities of Ireland which had very close links with Limerick.

Exchanges

Though the twinning agreement was signed only on Monday, a considerable amount of work had already been done to establish links between the two cities.

Band event

The number of bands participating in Sunday's International Band Parade was down on previous years. But the 40,000 of people who lined the streets were entertained in the style.

FARMERS PLEAD IN VAIN FOR A FREEZE

BY PATRICIA FEEHILY

AN APPEAL NOT to increase the burden on Limerick's 2,400 rate-paying farmers was made at the county meeting of Limerick County Council by a delegation from the I.F.A., headed by the Munster vice-president, Mr. Paddy Fitzgerald.

Mr. Fitzgerald.

Worst roads

He also agreed with the dissatisfaction at the state of the roads, and said that the council had a grave responsibility to the people who were using the roads.

Income drop

In his appeal, Mr. Paddy Fitzgerald said that farmers' income had dropped by 50 per cent in the last two years, and now after the disappointment of the Brussels package, they couldn't take any more.

Chairman

The chairman of the adjudicators, Dr. Anthony Hughes, professor of music at UCD, gave high praise to the finalists and reported to the business people of Limerick to give some suitable award to a musician.
